

THE CORPORATION OF THE VILLAGE SALMO

BYLAW #531

A BYLAW TO ESTABLISH A MUNICIPAL ACCESS TO HEALTH SERVICE

WHEREAS Sections 8 of the COMMUNITY CHARTER (SBC Chapter 26) authorize Council to provide a service that it considers desirable by the community, and

WHEREAS Council deems it to be in the public interest of the community to facilitate access to health services for the community's residents,

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Village of Salmo, in open meeting assembled, ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

SHORT TITLE

1. (1) This Bylaw may be cited as the "ACCESS TO HEALTH SERVICES BYLAW"

SERVICE DEFINITION

2. (1) For the purpose of this Bylaw
  - a) "access" shall include access to property and/or buildings within the municipality that are suitable for the delivery of health services.
  - b) "health services" shall include any service in the domain of the physical or mental health of persons.

SERVICE ACCESS

3. (1) Council may undertake the following for the purpose of providing access to health services:
  - a) own, hold, or lease real property;
  - b) establish and own a corporation;
  - c) contract for the delivery of access to health services.

ENACTMENT

4. (1) If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Bylaw is for any reason held to be invalid by the decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion shall be severed and the part that is invalid shall not affect the validity of the remainder.
  - (2) This Bylaw shall come into full force and effect on final adoption.
