

Sustainable Salmo

Exploring Our Future. Together.

WORKSHOP #1: Social & Cultural Well-Being

Where: Salmo Valley Youth and Community Centre Society

Time: 6:30-8:30 pm

WORKSHOP AGENDA

6:30-6:40 pm Sustainable Salmo Update (Diane Kalen-Sukra, Village CAO)

6:40-7:10 pm Presentations

- Community capital and what's important to Salmo (Dr. Alison Shaw, FlipSide Sustainability)
- Social & cultural well-being translated into community health planning (Pam Moore, Interior Health)
- Regional levers that enhance social and cultural well-being (Sangita Sudan/Meeri Durand, Regional District of Central Kootenay)
- Social and cultural well-being in land-use planning (Joan Chess, Consultant, Planning Institute of BC)

7:10-7:15 pm Summary & Workshop Instructions

7:15-8:00 pm Working Group Tables

- 3 questions to enhance social & cultural well-being

8:00-8:25 pm Prioritizing Exercise (Plenary)

- Social & cultural assets for the official community plan

8:25-8:30 pm Thank you and ongoing process (Diane Kalen-Sukra, Village CAO)

Highlights of Social & Cultural Well-Being Survey Results

What creates social connectedness and well-being in Salmo (148)?

Key Social & Cultural Assets (87)

Community Culture

- Good people (e.g. friendly, helpful, cooperative)
 - Socially close (e.g. small, like a family)
 - Know neighbours
- Sense of community (e.g. spirit)

Village Assets

(Amenities & Recreation)

- Library
- Farmers Market
- Pool
- Ski hill
- Community Centre
- Schools

Community Events

- July 1st,
- Multi-age and affordable programs
- Festivals
- Fundraisers
- Bingo
- Luncheons

Physical constraints of our valley keep us physically & socially close

Community-run organizations

Self-regulating

Small community makes you feel like you are part of a family

Meet in public places

Sense of community