Village of Salmo hires new CAO

Salmo, BC - The Village of Salmo is pleased to announce the Council has hired Ange Qualizza as the new Chief Administrative Officer (CAO).

Ms. Qualizza will join the Village of Salmo September 8, and brings a broad range of management experience to the role. Ms. Qualizza has worked with local governments, is the previous mayor of the City of Fernie, sat on the Presidents Committee of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities for two years, has worked in the field of economic development, supported, and worked in the non-profit world, holds two degrees in economics and is a small business owner.

“Council is pleased to welcome Ange Qualizza to the role of CAO, and to our vibrant community. Ms. Qualizza brings local government experience to the role, has experience working with the current leadership in BC, and brings a lot of enthusiasm for the work of local governments. We look forward to Ms. Qualizza working with staff to support Council’s goals, and helping us to promote Salmo as a wonderful community to live in.” Mayor Lockwood says.
